Policy for Burial of the Ashes of Pets in the Saint Francis Garden
Adopted by the Vestry

1. The exclusive and only form of remains to be interred in the Memorial Garden shall be the ashes of pets. Ashes shall be buried directly in the earth, with no container. The Rector, at his/her sole discretion, shall have full authority, including the right of refusal, over the type, form and volume of ashes to be interred.
2. The Rector will determine the site of the burial. After burial the site will be closed and landscaping restored. The site will not be marked.
3. All burials will be recorded on a plaque located on the lower level of the parish's main building. The cost of the plaque is included in the burial fee.
4. There will be a $50.00 fee charged which includes the cost of the brass marker with the name of the pet which will be added to the plaque. This fee may be reduced or waived at the discretion of the Rector.
5. No flowers of any kind may be placed in the garden.
6. This policy is subject to change only through the approval of the Vestry of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Peachtree City, Georgia.

FUND FOR THE SAINT FRANCIS GARDEN

The pet burial fee, less the cost of the brass marker, will go into a designated fund for the upkeep of the garden subject to the discretion of the Rector. Donations other than the burial fee may be made to the St. Francis Garden designated fund.
